Honoring those who lead RARE LIVES... Lives of Courage, Leadership, Survival, Devotion, Character, and Heroism! The Eagle Rare Award was created to allow people to share amazing, inspirational stories about amazing people. Seven of those amazing stories each year are awarded money to be donated to the charity of the winning nominee's choice. Below is a list of charities that have had money donated to them by Eagle Rare.

One of the seven nominees is Central Kentucky Riding for Hope's own Justin O'Malley! Click the link below to read Justin's story, along with the others, and then vote on your favorite (hopefully Justin's story). Each nominee has named a charity of choice, and Justin has kindly named CKRH as his. But, you have to vote, and share, and forward...Then repeat. You can vote once a day until the end of the year.
